Churchwardens' Report.

Easter, 1909.

Another year has passed, and in pursuance of our duty as Wardens we beg to make the following report as to the finances of the Parish passing through our hands and other work and matters which have claimed our attention. The detailed statement, which is furnished herewith, shows all moneys received and payments made during the past year, together with the amount on hand to be carried over to next year. This balance to be carried over, you will notice, is less than last year, notwithstanding the fact that there is included in it the rents received from the Scadding House, which we have been obliged again to use to meet the ordinary expenditure. It is to be hoped that the congregation will be able to materially increase the Weekly Offertory during the coming year so that the Wardens may be able to meet all necessary and uncontrollable outlays, as well as other expenditure which aggressive work in a parish like this requires, without using the whole of the revenue from this property. If our hopes are realized the outlook for the future is encouraging.

This statement shows that the amount received through the Offertory is $2,875.84, or an average of $56.38 per Sunday, of this sum $1,433.13 came by open contribution and $1,442.71 through the envelope system. Looking at the average of last year's contributions, the above is an increase, but we should mention, to enable a fair comparison to be made, that $275.00 credited to this year's receipts really belonged to last year, it being received at last Easter-tide after the year's accounts had been closed and was, therefore, carried over and is included in the present statement.

Since our last annual meeting the outside woodwork of the Church has been repainted, the windows on the north side and the large window on the east side of the Church have been protected by outside or storm windows and the improvements or repairs to the organ referred to in our report of last year have been completed, particulars of which latter will, no doubt, be mentioned by the Organist in his report. These improvements on the organ have increased its value, which increase we felt required protection against loss by fire, this we have done by adding $500 to the previous insurance on that instrument. It would be better if the windows on the south side of the Church were similarly treated, not only as a protection againt the weather, as the lead in some of them is very weak, but as a matter of economy.

We have put on trial the policy of a somewhat freer use of the Sunday School Building by the young people of the Church and their friends during the week-day evenings, not only as regards the well recognized meetings which have always been held, but also in the forming and conducting under proper supervision of other gatherings for young people. This has resulted in a number meeting to enjoy themselves at basket ball, a club for boys to practise "the first principles in extending aid to the wounded," and to a class of young girls to practise "calisthenics." We felt that the building could in this manner be used by our young people with benefit to themselves and with greater advantage to the Church than by keeping it closed; that they could, by this means, materially assist the Clergy in the work to be done in this Parish and in making our Church work more interesting and attractive, as well as help in counteracting many of the evil influences to which young people, residing in this section of the City, are more or less exposed. We would urge the younger members of the Church, and in fact every member, to co-operate in this and use the means we have at hand to carry on the work a down-town Church in this City has before it, with the hope and confidence that as the work develops and larger and more complete accommodation is found necessary the future will see it supplied.

This Parish, with others, desires to record its regrets at the calling away of His Grace Archbishop Sweatman; gentlemanly in his bearing, courteous and kind, to know him was to respect him. He labored faithfully, but has been called to his well earned rest.

During the year this Vestry has also lost by death two of its oldest members, the late Mr. H. C. Hammond, who died on the 26th of January last, and the late Mr. John Small, who died on the 10th of February last. Both gentlemen were always ready and liberal contributors to all requirements of the Church and their decease is a severe loss to this Parish. We would respectfully suggest that a suitable letter expressive of the regret and loss this Parish has sustained, as well as of our sympathy in the greater loss to their relatives, be sent on behalf of this Vestry to the proper representative of each of these members.

In closing, the Churchwardens desire to thank the ladies of the Congregation for assistance rendered in connection with the work of the Church, to assure the Choir that their efficient and faithful work is appreciated and to convey to the Auditors our hearty thanks for their services.

Respectfully submitted,

F. A. Blachford,
W. R. Cavell,

Assistant Rector's Letter.

I have been asked to write a few lines for the Year Book, and gladly avail myself of the opportunity.

Since coming to the parish, about thirteen months ago, I have received nothing but kindness and encouragement on every side—from the Rector, Churchwardens, Church Officials, Choir Master, Choir, Organizations, and Congregation generally. No one could have been received more kindly. I have met with sympathy and kind words everywhere, and I deeply appreciate it all, and feel stimulated to renewed effort for the future.

I believe that the Church of the Holy Trinity can do a good and useful work in this community. We have met with a good measure of success during the past year. The number of Easter Communicants is substantially larger than that of last year, the various organizations are in a good condition, as the different reports show, and the Sunday congregations are increasing. The mid-day services during Lent were most satisfactorily attended. These services are but the beginning of an endeavor to meet the needs of that large working population which surrounds this Church in week days. We hope in the future to develop work along that line.

We are indeed fortunate in having many in this Church who are ready to give time and ability to doing its work. I confidently appeal to all the parishioners for co-operation, ever renewed interest, and self sacrificing service in this work for God and Man.

Yours faithfully,

DERWYN T. OWEN,

Assistant Rector.

The Choir.

The work of the choir during the past year under the direction of the organist and choirmaster Mr. A. R. Blackburn has been very satisfactory.

At tne Annual Easter vestry meeting high appreciation was expressed of the generally excellent and faithful work of the Choir.

Two entertainments were given during the winter, proceeds of which to be devoted to new choir vestments.

The Organ.

The organ has been further improved during the past year. A beautiful Vox Humana stop has been added to the swell organ. This stop was made and voiced in London, England, and installed by Messrs. Lye and Sons the builders of the organ. It is placed in a separate swell box at the back of the swell organ. The Tremulant has been replaced by a new one of different construction, which gives slower pulsations, more nearly resembling the vibrations of the human voice. The Vox Humana produces a distinct colour of tone which adds greatly to the beauty to the organ.

A. R. BLACKBURN,
Organist.

Envelope Report.

This year closes with the same number of subscribers as at last Easter. During the year there was a decided increase but owing to some members moving from the Parish and by death, the number has been reduced to 74 again.

We would earnestly ask all members of the congregation who are not already members to become so at once.

"The exodus of English speaking people from this district," referred to in the last Report, continues, and there is a consequent loss in the attendance, which is nearly, if not quite, balanced by occasional new pupils. The average attendance is about the same as that of last year.

We are sorry to have lost from our Roll of Teachers, Mrs. Glenny, who has gone to live in the West End, Miss Johnston, Miss Heather and Miss Perry.

We have had the pleasure of welcoming as new Teachers, Miss M. A. Smith, Miss Harris and Miss England, and Miss Locke and Miss J. Locke have very kindly acted as "occasional" teachers, as well as the pupils of Mr. Agar's Bible Class. The boys' class, vacated by one of the teachers, has been taken over by Mr. Morgan, which, together with other causes, has necessitated much of the practical oversight of the School being taken by Mr. Hopkins, who has indefatigably done more than his share of the work.

We deeply regret the loss we have sustained by the death of Mr. Alonzo Downey, Assistant Registrar and Assistant Librarian. Those offices have been filled by the appointment of Mr. Wm. Inch, a recent senior pupil. The long vacant Librarianship temporarily filled by Mr. Hopkins has been accepted by Mr. Walter P. Harris, who arranged for the addition of several new books, and re-catalogued the Library.

Miss Pearson finding it necessary to resign temporarily her position as Organist, Miss Mary Locke has consented to perform that office.

The school was once again honoured through the success of its candidates in the Interdiocesan Sunday School examinations. Miss Bathurst and Miss Alice E. Clarke both entered the lists again, and it is our great pleasure to congratulate Miss Bathurst upon winning Second Class Honors in the Teachers' Examination, missing First Class Honors by only one mark, and Miss Clarke First Class in the Scholars' Examination.

The Annual Winter Treats were as usual thoroughly enjoyed. The Infant Class Treat was held on December 30th, that of the Main School on January 14th. The Annual Picnic was held on Tuesday, July 14th, at Rosebank. All things combined to make it a very enjoyable outing for both young and old.

A glance at the appended Treasurer's Report will show the School's continued interest in Christian work not directly connected with the School.

Children's Services were held in the Church in the afternoons of the Sunday after Christmas and the Sunday after Easter. The School has been gratified by the attendance thereat of members of Mr. Owen's and Mr. Agar's Bible Classes. It is greatly to be desired that parents and other members of the congregation would inspire the children by their presence at these periodical services.

Sec.-Treasurer.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

The local Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, No. 21, which has been dormant for a time, was recently revived and Mr. Thomas, the General Secretary, one evening addressed a small but enthusiastic meeting of young men, with the aim of encouraging them in their contemplated work of bringing other men to Church. Meetings have been held weekly, when reports have been received of visiting and other work done and fresh work undertaken.

This organization, when its two simple rules of prayer and service are faithfully followed, is one of the most effective helps to the Clergy in their attempts to get into touch with Church people whose names are not on the regular visiting list.

Young men who are anxious to see a more rapid growth of the congregation, will be cordially welcomed into membership in Chapter 21.

V. E. F. Morgan, Temporary Director.

Men's Bible Class.

The Men's Bible Class was organized on Nov. 15th, and although started at this late date has been very successful. Commencing with a membership of 15, it has increased to 25. Considering that we were handicapped by the absence of Rev. Mr. Owen, during the greater part of December and January, this is very satisfactory.

A series of interesting lessons was taken on the Old Testament and the four Gospels.

Two Socials were held, one in December (for men) and one in February, both of which were successful.

A Cricket Club has been organized as a beginning for an Athletic Association.

A very hearty and cordial invitation is extended to every man in the congregation to attend the class.

The report of the seventeenth year of the Holy Trinity Branch of the W. A. is full of encouragement, as a steady advance in every right direction can be noted. The work has been carried on well during the season, with 60 members on the Roll and an average attendance at the meetings of 19.

There have been 18 meetings held on Tuesday afternoons at two o'clock, the meeting on the second Tuesday of each month being for business, the others for sewing.

At the business meetings very interesting addresses have most kindly been given by Miss Tippet, Mrs. Broughall,

Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, Mrs. Heber Hamilton, Mrs. S. G. Wood and Miss Osler.

Until Christmas, sewing was done as usual for the Parochial Dorcas Society. Afterwards a fine bale was prepared for the Rev. Murdock Johnston, containing clothing of all kinds and five quilts, four made by the Auxiliary and one sent by the Mothers' Meetings of the Parish.

The January Board Meeting and New Year's Service were held at Holy Trinity and were very largely attended.

A "Shower Tea" for the Georgina Home was given by the Auxiliary members, assisted by some members of the congregation, which resulted in 31 pairs of sheets and 27 jars of jam being sent to the Home.

All the pledges undertaken by the Branch have been paid in full, and in addition, contributions have been given to Roberta Tilton Memorial Fund, the Library Fund and the E. W. Williamson Memorial Home.

The meetings will be resumed on Tuesday, the 12th of October, when it is hoped that many new members will be enrolled.

Those interested are cordially welcome at any of the meetings and especially at the Business meetings on the second Tuesday of each month at 2.30 p.m.

HELEN R. BRUCE, Secretary.

Pianiste ..... Miss Bertha Caiger.

Meetings of the A.Y.P.A. were held every Tuesday evening during the season 1908-9, which has been a most successful one. The Association had about seventy-five members on the roll and the average attendance was from thirty to thirty-five members.

The objects of the Association are Worship, Work, Fellowship and Edification and were carried out in this season's programme as follows :

WORSHIP—Each meeting opens and closes with hymn and prayer ; there were two services in the Church which the members of the A.Y.P.A. attended, and a Missionary evening was held at which an illustrated Lecture was given, entitled "The Church in Eastern Canada."

WORK—A Pound Concert was held for the benefit of the poor of the Parish, at which some twenty baskets of provisions were collected and distributed. This Concert and the Annual Concert were two of the most successful events of the season.

EDIFICATION—Interesting addresses were given during the season on "Savage Warfare," "Companionship and Character," "The Bishops of Toronto," "The New Church Hymn Book," "The Church in the North West," "Charles Dickens" and "A Trip to Jamaica." On St. Patrick's Day papers were given by members of the Association on the "Life, Work and Character of St. Patrick" and one of the evenings during Lent was devoted to papers by the members on Devotional Subjects.

FELLOWSHIP—A number of evenings were devoted to social intercourse, music, games, guessing contests, debates and entertaining and paying visits to sister branches of the A.Y.P.A.

We are always pleased to have visitors at our meetings and any information with regard to this Association will willingly be given by the President or Secretary.

The Flower and Chancel Guild.

A meeting was held before Easter of the Flower and Chancel Guild to re-organize. Mrs. D. T. Owen was made President, Miss Spratt, Sec. Treas. ; other members being Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Holcroft, Misses Harford, Goeden, Locke, Turquand and McAuley. The cleaning of the altar brass each week and washing of the altar linen has been attended to. If anyone would like to join, please send their names to the churchwardens. The subscription is 5c. to 25c. a month, Miss Turquand and Miss Hoar collected $16.75 for the Easter flowers.

The Choir Guild has met regularly every Thursday afternoon during the winter months. Mrs. W. R. Cavell has presided at these meetings, which have been well attended. It is gratifying to know that the choir vestments are in good order. It is contemplated in the early autumn to make a complete set of new surplices. An entertainment was given by the choir, the proceeds of which are to be devoted towards purchasing material for this purpose. The guild, in addition to its regular work, spent considerable time in making costumes for the choir boys for their entertainment. Our president gratefully acknowledges the receipt of the sum of five dollars from a member of the congregation for the purposes of the Choir Guild. Funds will be required in the near future for new cassocks. New members will be cordially welcomed.

The Dorcas Society.

The amount collected for the Dorcas Society during the year was $26.10.

Collected by Miss Leslie	$ 8 00
" " Miss Selby	7 10
" " Miss Turquand	11 00
	$26 10

The sum was expended on flannel, shoes, and clothing for the poor.

E. M. Pearson,
Treasurer.

The Sewing Class.

The Children's Sewing Class began work again last autumn and met every Monday evening for five months with an average attendance of thirty-five. The children accomplished good work in the way of dish towels, aprons, nightgowns, pillow slips and skirts. Miss Leslie took charge of the class, assisted by Mrs. Mowat, Mrs. Canniff, Miss Gwatkin, Miss M. Locke, Miss A. McAuley and Miss Pearson. Prizes were given on the closing evening.

Mary Leslie.

The Girls' Friendly Society.

This branch sustained a great loss last year, when our two Associates, Mrs. Sullivan and Miss Thompson resigned, we have missed them at our meetings this winter.

In October, when our meetings began, we had the help of Mrs. Morgan, which we appreciated very much, also Mrs. Holcroft and Mrs. Fitzgerald were a great help to us in preparing our dolls for the Christmas Tree and making some warm clothing which we gave to Mrs. Pearson to distribute. Since Cnristmas we have been sewing for our "Holiday House" at Hamilton Beach, and working for a Sale of Work held by the combined branches of the G.F.S. for our rooms at Georgina House. We had the pleasure of having Mrs. Kennedy visit us one evening and she gave us a most interesting talk on Japan. We have Bible Study one evening every month by Rev. Mr. Owen. We would gladly welcome any girls over 15 to join us in our meetings.

FLORENCE JERREAT,
Associate in Charge.

Mothers' Meetings.

These meetings were held every Friday evening at 7 o'clock and this year were most successful. The attendance has increased, and in consequence more work was done. We finished three very nice quilts which were sent to Missions, two to Dr. Grenfell's Mission and one to the North West. We are glad to welcome any mother who can spare the time.

BESSIE A. MCAULEY.

The Basket Ball Team.

The Churchwardens, having kindly consented to allow the use of the main hall of the School-house once a week for practice, etc., a number of the Senior boys of the Parish collected about $10 from the sympathetic, and organized a Basket Ball Team, in affiliation with the Toronto Anglican Athletic Association. The following officers were chosen :

Honorary President..... Rev. J. Pearson
" Vice-President.... Rev. D. T. Owen
President..... Rev. V. E. F. Morgan
Manager..... Mr. E. Manifold
Captain..... Mr. E. White
Secretary..... Mr. W. Johnston
Treasurer..... Mr. C. Potts

The Team usually practice on Monday nights. They played in several matches and were beaten only twice. In the final contest for the championship, however, All Saints Team (a much " heavier " one) was successful against them. This new organization has certainly justified the encouragement given it by the Churchwardens and subscribers.

Votes of Thanks.

At the annual Vestry Meeting held on Easter Monday, April 12th, 1909, resolutions were unanimously carried thanking

The Churchwardens for their services.

The Organist and the several members of the Choir for their zealous and efficient work and Mr. A. R. Blackburn in particular for extra instrumental music on different occasions.

Mr. Simmons for the loan of many beautiful plants and gifts of flowers at different times during the year.

The Ladies of the congregation for the assistance rendered by them in various ways in the work of the parish. There was also a Committee appointed consisting of the Rector, Assistant Rector and Mr. C. J. Agar to prepare resolutions of regret at the loss this congregation has sustained by the decease of Mr H. C. Hammond and Mr. John Small and direction was given that such resolutions be entered on the Minutes of the Meeting and copies thereof be sent to their respective families.
